

JOB CORPS

CAREER TRANSITION SERVICES

You've graduated from Job Corps. You have a high school diploma or GED. You've trained in a trade. Now let your CTS specialist help you get settled in a new job.

Job Corps, the nation's oldest and largest vocational and educational training program, offers a variety of resources to help you establish yourself in the working world after graduation – all at no cost to you.

Career Transition Services staff can help you with:

- Career placement
- Child care
- Counseling
- Health care
- Housing
- Job retention skills
- Legal referral services
- Mentoring
- Money management
- Transportation
- Work clothes and tools

Success lasts a lifetime.

Whether you're moving back home or to a new city, CTS staff will assist you with finding health care, a car or a bank, no matter where you are. Job Corps offers Career Transition Services anywhere in the United States for up to one year after your initial job placement.

Work with your CTS specialist and take the next step toward educational or career success. For more information about Job Corps Career Transition Services, please contact your local CTS specialist or Job Corps center.
